NOEL Hack has been the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lagrange for the past 16 years. He grew up in the church he now pastors before attending Cedarville University where he received a degree in Bible in 1986. He has been married to his wife, Dianna, for 22 years and they have three college-aged children, Joshua, Ashli, and Colby.

David Kisner is the lead pastor of Washington Heights Baptist Church where he has served for the past 15 years. Prior to his time at WHBC, Dave pastored churches in Westmont, Illinois and Rochester, New York. He holds degrees from Cedarville University and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in history, education, and theology. He has been actively involved in missions through church planting and leadership training in ten countries. Dave and his wife Wendy have two grown children, Amy and Nathan.

George Hattenfield and his wife, Jean, and their two children, Debbie and David, began their ministry at Linworth Baptist Church, Columbus in October 1970. Before coming to Columbus he pastored churches in Frostburg, Maryland and in Mineral Point, Pennsylvania. George is a graduate of Philadelphia Biblical University and Wheaton College.

Tim Kenoyer grew up in India, son of Baptist Mid-Mission missionaries. He holds a degree in English from Marion College and graduated with a master of divinity from Grace Theological Seminary. Tim is the senior pastor of Maranatha Baptist Church of Columbus. He considers himself deeply blessed to be a pastor of His flock and a witness to the power of the cross. Tim and his wife, Judith, have four children and 12 grandchildren.

CRAIG Miller serves as the Senior Pastor of Grace Baptist Church in Cedarville. A graduate of Cedarville University, Talbot School of Theology and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, he served two churches in southern California for 25 years before returning to Ohio in 2005. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children (two daughters and a son), two sons-in-law, and one adorable grandson. He has been privileged to visit, encourage, and teach in mission settings on five continents, and is thankful for the opportunity to teach Spiritual Formation and Pastoral Ministry classes at Cedarville University.

Dave Warren was born and raised in Michigan. He attended Cedarville College, earning a bachelor of arts in Bible, and Dallas Seminary, where he earned a master of theology in Hebrew. After pastoring a church in Warren for eight years, Dave transitioned to Christian education, teaching at Faith Baptist Bible College and Cedarville University. Dave currently serves as the State Representative for the OARBC and is a trustee for CU. He and his wife, Pat, have four adult children and 11 grandchildren.

Tom Wright has pastored three OARBC churches during 44 years in ministry. For the past 31 years he has served as senior pastor of Memorial Baptist Church in Columbus. Tom holds degrees from Moody Bible Institute, Trinity College, and Baptist Bible Seminary. He also serves on the board of Evangelical Baptist Missions. Tom and his wife, Sue, have four married children and nine grandchildren. They are passionate about missions, regularly leading teams to the fields and missionaries MBC supports. Intentional discipleship and mentoring occupies much of their ministry time together.

Don’t forget the Gospel.
